

A Collection of Psalm & Hymn Tunes, carefully and properly arranged both for the

ORGAN & PIANO FORTE,

And may be used in Public or Private devotion.

many of them are original Compositions.

and all are much admired for their suitable & sacred character

by

RICHARD BOURNE.

Organist of St. Thomas's Church Paulsey.

One Verse is printed to each Tune taken from the Collection of Psalms & Hymns used in that Church

Printed at

Price

LONDON,

Published by T. Welsh at the Royal Harmonic Institution,

Angell Rooms 246, Regent Street

Dedication.

to Sir Richard Gough, Bart. of Fishay Castle, Pembrokeshire.

Sir,

Several of the Duans, in this Collection having been presented to me by your late lamented Sister, whose Skill & Proficiency in Music were acknowledged by her many Visitors, the Volume was intended having received her Permission to be inscribed with her Name. But, it having pleased our all wise Providence to translate her to that state, where by choice of Teachers & Language may more perfect. Melodious, & more naturally induced, Sir, to turn a very thought to you who, for practical Skill & scientific Judgement, in the same pleasing Art, so much resemble her, that the sacred Duans, thus permitted to be placed under your Patronage, may receive your Approval, & that long they may delight your ear in your own Castle, rendered audible by the fine Organ which you have ordered by instructing to my care, for repairation is the sincere wish, of Sir, your most respectful and much obliged Servant,

Richard Gough

Dublin: 1st January 1829.

5 The late M^{rs} Gough.